

Cape Cod Bird Club
Board of Directors Meeting
May 14 2018

Present: Peter Bono (Director), Mark Faherty (Director), Mary Jo Foti (Treasurer), Julie O'Neil (Secretary), George Oleyer (Director), Stephanie Paventy (Director).

Secretary: minutes of previous meeting - -approved.

President (Peter Bono acting in the absence of Christine Bates, VP):

- Peter said the CCBC is on track on the income side. We collected what we expected on renewals.
- We are looking for a co-chair for refreshments.
- When David Clapp finishes his Smithsonian tenure, he may join the CCBC Board.
- Herb Raffaele will help with the production of The Kingfisher. [Editor: after this meeting, Herb agreed to join the CCBC Board as a Director and take over the Membership duties.]
- Vice-President needs to remind Chelsea Philbrook, CCBC Scholarship winner for 2018, that she needs to present her program at the November Bird club meeting and write an article for the Fall issue of The Kingfisher.
- There was a discussion of whether we should be funding education for multiple classroom science teachers rather than for individual students.

Newsletter deadlines: Summer issue – June 15 – Fall issue September - 15

Program: Marshall Iiff, Cornell Lab of Ornithology: Ten things You should Know About eBird

Meeting Adjourned at 7:00 pm

Respectfully submitted, \
Julie O'Neil (Secretary, CCBC)
